

Position: Head Goaltending Instructor

Job Description

The Head Goaltending Instructor runs our Goaltender Development Program and Private Lessons for various levels of goaltenders. The objective is to ensure quality programs are planned, developed, and presented to the customer on a continual basis providing the optimal opportunity for development and enjoyment.

Employees within this job classification must possess strong interpersonal skills and communication with participants and customers is required to ensure the product meets and exceeds client standards. This position is differentiated from that of the Assistant Instructor through the level of skill, experience and responsibility required for supervising, assisting, planning, and evaluating. The Head Instructor must take responsibility for all happenings within an on-ice training session.

Typical Duties and Responsibilities

- Develop practices and drills that relate to the purpose of the lesson.
- Produce a safe environment for participants by ensuring The Zone Training safety regulations are being met.
- Review and have thorough knowledge of Zone programs and hockey in general.
- Supervise, allocate, and participate in the work of assistant instructors when required.
- Communicate with participants and the customer (parents) to ensure satisfaction.
- Review work of assistants and ensure standards are maintained.

Qualifications

- Minimum of 5 years of experience instructing goaltender programs/private lessons with some experience as a Head Instructor.
- Must have experience as a goaltender at a competitive level (Jr. B or higher).
- Must have extensive knowledge of goaltending basics along with modern goaltending techniques.
- Able to present themselves professionally and communicate appropriately with all customers and staff members.
- Strong planning and time management skills.

Wage: $25 - $35 per hour based on qualifications. This job is a contracted position.

Hours/Shifts: Generally shifts are 2-5 hours and during evenings and weekends. Weekday shifts can start as early as 3:30pm, but we can work around instructors schedules.

To Apply: Email a resume to derek.obermeyer@thezonetraining.ca